

- We've taken the liberty of printing some business cards for you
- We hope you might consider issuing the cards to current and former members of your Wing's Executive
- The cards are generic, meaning everyone can use them
- If you would like to put your name on the card, there is a spot to do so

- Simply pick up a name stamp (see picture) at your local business supply store (Staples, etc...) and stamp as many cards as you feel you might need
- There is also a spot for the local Wing telephone number
- Thank you for considering this idea
- We recognize how important it is to give our best promoters (Wing Executive members) the tools they need to help strengthen our great association
- These cards promote our association
- They convey a message of professionalism
- And, they help you recruit and retain members in your Wing
- We have more cards to share with you, simply give us a call and we'll send some to you right away
